

Treating trauma through Shakespeare and Science.

The ecstasy of our work but the throes of our schedule.

Dawn and I are traveling everyday to bring DE-CRUIT to communities from upstate New York to Pennsylvania to Texas.

We've traveled over 25,000 miles since April 1st, 2018.

CRY HAVOC!

Through October, I will primarily be focused

DE-CRUIT

We are in the midst of week five of seven for DE-CRUIT I: 2018.

Just a reminder that we are raising funds to both treat Veterans and pay Veterans. We are a tiny organization making a tangible difference, creating real and long-lasting change in Veterans lives, their families and their communities. Donating to us means the funds go directly towards programming and funding Veterans.

While we know there are many places your donations can go including large natural disasters, climate change, political issues, etc., your donation to DE-CRUIT is a very personal one for programs helping vets that are happening RIGHT NOW. Further, you will see WHAT the donations are going towards, WHO the donations are helping, and WHERE it is making a difference. While we are a very small organization, that also means we have very small overhead, so your small donations can make a on delivering DE-CRUIT, and training DE-CRUITers; However, this week "CRY HAVOC!" is going North to Alaska!!

We are also finalizing bookings, keynotes, award nominations, and more... all of which looks to have us booked through December... OF NEXT YEAR! 2019.

More on all of that anon.

#VanLife

We were lucky enough to sneak in a visit to Boston, MA and see dear friends, Bessel Van Der Kolk, Licia Sky, Ed Tronick, and Marilyn Davillier! Delicious food, stimulating conversations, laughs, debates about how to save the world, great time! And this was one of the many reasons we gave up our lease in Brooklyn, gave up our "secure" jobs, and moved into a van: Not only to take DE-CRUIT and Cry Havoc! on the road full time; but also, to see our friends and family!! ...
