
Sharing our productive Autumn

'Twas a busy Autumn!

Since completing four more DE-CRUIT courses, we've published yet another journal article on our scientific data, performed Cry Havoc! at a major mental health conference in D.C., a military academy and my home state. Plus we an unexpected Van repair... and much more!

Above: Veterans and faculty from UW-PARKSIDE

CRY HAVOC! Updates...

November has been a busy month!

First up, we were in Washington, D.C. for the International Society for Traumatic Stress Studies 34th Annual Meeting: Promoting Societal Change: Integrating Traumatic Stress Research, Practice and Policy for Vulnerable Populations.

Next it was off to Kenosha/Racine, WI to visit both the Veterans' Program at UW-Parkside as well as the Veterans of the Racine Correctional Center.

This past weekend we were in Vermont working with Veterans at Norwich University.

And this week its SUNY-Empire State

Students and Cadets at Norwich University.

Lots of DE-CRUIT News...

We have a New journal publication in: Drama Therapy Review

<https://www.intellectbooks.co.uk/journals/view-issue,id=3628/>

Intersecting modes of aesthetic distance and mimetic induction in therapeutic process: Examining a drama-based treatment for military-related traumatic stress

Authors: Alisha Ali And Stephan Wolfert And Ingrid Lam And Tazmin Rahman , Page Start: 153

Abstract

Can Shakespeare be a treatment for posttraumatic stress in military veterans? This is the question that our research team has been examining through the empirical investigation of the DE-CRUIT program. DE-CRUIT uses Shakespeare's verse to help veterans with the articulation, sharing and processing of trauma. In this article, we focus specifically on the therapeutic process of the program that involves various modes of aesthetic distance in combination with mimetic induction, a treatment technique in which fictionalized narrative reflects the real-life experience of trauma. After describing that process, we illustrate these various intersecting therapeutic components through the case of 'D.', a military veteran who...

AND LOOK HERE!
We're Featured on a new podcast

https:// andthensuddenlypodcast.com/2018/11/12/11-stephan-wolfert-on-rewiring-the-brain-with-shakespeare-and-science/

AND THEN SUDDENLY
podcast

In VanLife news...

Our mobile DE-CRUIT mobile, 'Kali' needed an unexpected and somewhat costly repair in Chicago. Luckily, it was at a time when we could make the extra time in our schedule and see our dear friends Anne Harris, and her husband Aaron Krossvich and their daughter Ara.

And our Person(s) of Interest:

Dennis Krausnick, Founding Member of Shakespeare & Company, friend, and mentor passed last week at the age of 76. His gifts to me and to the world of classical actor training are immeasurable. Losing him has left a void in the world that I'm not sure can ever be filled. Thank you Dennis for your love, training and guidance. And now, "Fear no more, the heat of the sun / nor the furious winter's rages".

Copyright © 2018 DE-CRUIT, All rights reserved.

You are receiving this because you have shown an interest in the work of military Veteran Stephan Wolfert, his show CRY HAVOC! and/or his DE-CRUIT program.

Our mailing address is:

DE-CRUIT

319 Lafayette St # 162

New York, NY 10012-2711
