

CRY HAVOC!

Written & Performed by
Stephan Wolfert
Directed by
Eric Tucker

An award-winning, critically acclaimed 75-minute solo performance.
It chews you up and spits you out, as it were. It gives you chills while swathing you in empathy. Its horrific images of warfare are countered with angelic theatrical effects as the human heart is exposed. You haven't quite been to a place like this, yet it's homey and warmly embracing. A nightmare with raw nerves; it's a plea for understanding and healing. -Houston Press
