

Treating trauma through Shakespeare and Science.

As We Approach Veterans Day...
It's always the busiest time of year for Veterans and Veteran organizations, and we are no exception! We:

- Opened a World Premier about one of Shakespeare's Woman Veterans told from a trauma-informed lens. <https://www.amphibianstage.com/all-shows/she-wolf>
- Were featured in "Mad In America", a magazine by Robert Whitaker, and the article was written by fellow Veteran Drew Wiggins. <https://www.madinamerica.com/2019/10/veterans-find-path-to-healing-through-shakespeare/>
- Present FORT WORTH Veterans' performances on Veterans' Day at Amphibian Stage.
- Head to both Ohio Shakespeare and Cincinnati Shakespeare to perform and begin DE-CRUIT programming.

---

Pictures from SHE-WOLF our latest adaptation of Shakespeare from a Veterans' perspective.

Pictured above:

- Dawn Stern as She-Wolf. (top)
- James Edward Becton, Military Veteran. (bottom left)
- Drew Ledbetter. (bottom right)

Find Out More

---

Our mailing address is:

DE-CRUIT

319 Lafayette St # 162

New York, NY 10012-2711

---