A SPECIAL THANKS TO:

Craig McKee, an anchor on WCPO 9 (ABC) in Cincinnati who has a weekly segment called "HOME FRONT" featuring military Veterans' stories.

Craig created a wonderful segment that he shared with us and about us while we were in residence at Cincinnati Shakespeare Company:

Here's What Else We've Been Up To... and Where We're Headed Next!

In October and November we:

- Received the Max Gabriel Award from the National Alliance for Mental Illness-New York
- Received rave reviews of our World Premier of SHE-WOLF with our dear comrades at Amphibian Stage Productions: (below)
- <http://www.theaterjones.com/ntx/reviews/20191025100936/2019-10-25/Amphibian-Stage/She-Wolf>
- Deepened DE-CRUIT's relationship with Tarrant County's Veteran Court-making DE-CRUIT a treatment component towards Veterans' paths to having their records cleared.
- Performed 'Cry Havoc!' to standing ovations with our new friends at Ohio Shakespeare in Akron
- Performed both Cry Havoc! and SHE-WOLF to standing ovations with our friends at Cincinnati Shakespeare Company... and we are in conversation about how to launch DE-CRUIT there too!
- I received an acting award! 2019 Syracuse Area Live Theatre (SALT)

Award for Best Supporting Actor in Kate Hamill's "Pride & Prejudice" at Syracuse Stage.

And while you all enjoy your November Holiday, Dawn and I will be en route to Yoga Teacher Training.
